

SHOPPING

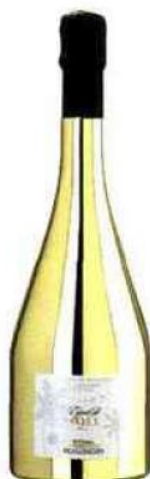

Monkey Shoulder

A blended malt made from three single malts from Speyside, this is a far cry from the arcane world of tasting – it is accessible, generous and never tedious. The three monkeys attached to the shoulder of the bottle and its name allude to joint pains suffered by maltsters as they used to turn malt by hand. The whisky is a free-spirited offering that has broken the mold in terms of classic tasting rules for malt whiskies.

€23.50 in supermarkets

Année de Madame 2006

Champagne Pierre Mignon has released this magnificent blend of 60% Chardonnay, 30% Pinot Meunier and 10% Pinot noir. The metallic gold bottle sports a collectible wire cap complete with Swarovski glitter. The ultimate Champagne for an elaborate aperitif, warm oysters cooked in Champagne, foie gras with pink peppercorns or roast rock lobster with mild spices.

Available at the cellar door and at the finest wine merchants. Recommended retail price: €68 a bottle or €80 in a gift set with two flutes.